LINCOLN AND JOHNSON CLUB .- At the meet. ing of the Lincoln and Johnson club last eye. ning, at the rooms on 9th street, there was a large attendance, Mr. Ciepnane in the chair.

The resolution of Mr. Elvans, providing that hereafter nominations for members should be made and referred to a committee and that they shall be balloted for as the committee reported thereon was taken up. Mr. Elvans expressed the hope that the resolution would be considered and passed. Since the previous meeting his desire to put the resolution in force had been increased, for he had seen an affidavit during the day, giving the character of two persons employed in the Quartermaser's Department-Mr. Holtzman and J. S. Dransy—who were now anxious to join the club and hold certificates as to their loyalty signed by Mr John F. Sharrets, chief clerk of the Sixth Auditor's office. Mr. Draney is a superintendent of laborers and the affida vit states that he has been heard to say that Lincoln and Johnson men cant go home to vote, but he intends to let McClellan men vote; claims that Confederate money is as good as greenbacks. He is president of a McClellan association, and at the late Pennsylvania election he refused to allow Lincoln men under him to go home and vote, and boasted that he assisted in cutting down the Lincoln and Hamlin pole, at Occoquan, Va. in 1861. A gentleman stated that there were many men of this class in office in this city, some having no political principles. There were a um ber of M Clellan men in office one man in the Provost Marshal's office is to eat two large rats if Mct lellan is not elected. He would not go for closing he books entirely, but a resolu-

The Chair stated that he had been requested to offer the names referred to, having been en dor-ed as loyal, but could not now offer it. In view of what had been said be would call the attention of the meeting to the black book.

The resolution was unanimously adepted, and Messrs. Elvans, T B. Brown, and D. C. Richards, were appointed the committee. Mr Freeman, of Maine, was introduced and addressed the club.

SEVENTH WARD EXEMPTION CLUB.-This club met last evening, and was called to order by Mr. Semmes On motion, John F. Haven. ner. Esq., was called to the chair. Mr. Semmes stated that the draft in the ward would take place to-morrow (Wednesday), and it was proper to determine at what time the book of the club should be closed. On motion of Mr. Murtagh, it was agreed that the book should be kept open until 10 o'clock to-day. Mr. Semmes addressed the club, stating that had he been allowed to use his own discretion in furnishing the drafted members of the club with substitutes, he could have saved $3,000 for the club. The total number o' mambars was 151, with an aggregate in money of $15,100. Of this amount $10,-50.50 had been paid for substitutes for drafted m mbers of the club, and for other expenses, leaving in and $4, 249 50. The number of men required to be furnished by the ward, according to his computation, was 46 Mr. A. W. Ward desired to know if, upon the second draft, it was found that there was not sufficient money in the club to furnish substitutes for the drafted, whether the members of the club would make in the deficiency.

Mr. Murtagh stated that that was the understanding and determination of the club. At a previous meeting a resolution was passed in which every member pledged hi user to pay his pro rata proportion, if the tund remaining was not found sufficient. This resolution was still in force, and would remain so until the ward quota was filled, unless repealed. The club then adjourned until this evening, at 7% o clock. A meeting of the association was then called to order by Mr. Semmes, and on motion W. J. Foster was called to the chair.

Mr. Semmes reported that the subscriptions the citizens of the ward amounted to $10,067.62. A portion of this amount had not actually been received by him, but could be obtained at any time. He had expended for recruits, volunteers, drafted men, $7 297.26, leaving a balance of $2,770 36. There were some bills remaining unpaid, which would probably reduce this amount to $2,500 The ball had nested the sum of $421, with 120 tickets to hear from. He desired to know whether it was the pleasure of the association that he should put in recruits to the credit of the ward, it they offered. On motion of W. T. Ford, he was directed to obtain all the recruits he could; and the association then adjourned

SANDERSON'S MINSTRELS .- This celebrated troupe, from the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, has been performing at Cumberland. Md., for the last two weeks, to crowded houses, and was advertised to open at Odd Fellows' Hall, on 7th street, to-night; but owing to an accident on the road, their agent, Mr. Chas L Howard, informs us that they will not appear till Thursday evening, October 27, when the lovers of mirth and melody will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the best troupes that has ever visited this city.

A MINISTERIAL CALL.-The Rev. George H. Gould, of Massachusetts, has been called to the pastorage of the First Presbyterian Church of this city. Mr. Gould has discoursed to the congregation of this church recently, and on Monday evening was unanimously pastor, in the absence of Dr. Sunderland.
